CAMBRIAN'S MONADNOCK STAKES.

The attractions at Hawthorne yesterday were of a high order and a crowd of at least ten thousand persons was on hand to witness the fine sport. The track, under the scorching rays of a blazing sun, had dried out entirely and was only about a second slow. A strong, hot wind prevailed throughout the afternoon, blowing down the long stretch at great speed and retarding the horses somewhat in the final quarter's run.

The Monadnock Handicap was one of the best contested races seen hereabouts this year and compared favorably with the Young and Wheeler Handicaps, run recently at Washington Park. The winner, Cambrian, put up a high class race, winning in impressive fashion and in such a manner as to leave no doubt that he was the best horse at the weights. Good old reliable Advance Guard was there with his usual stretch run, but the track was just a trifle too slow for him to perform to his best form.

After a short delay at the barrier, Holtmann got the big field off to a fair start with Louisville darting into the lead, closely attended by Cambrian, with Robert Waddell, Favonius, Vulcan and Jiminez well up in the order named. Bending the first turn Cambrian easily darted in to the lead, opening a gap of two lengths, while Jiminez moved up and passed Louisville for second position, with the latter lapped on Vulcan. Along in here Robert Waddell and Advance Guard brought up the rear within hailing distance. Down the backstretch the Tichenor horse running well within himself easily clung to his advantage with little change in the next four horses. Wheeling for the run in Jiminez began to falter and gradually receded, Louisville closely pressed by Vulcan taking the vacated position. In the meantime Advance Guard, John Bright and The Conqueror II. had gradually moved up, wheeling into the straightaway about four lengths back of the leader. Along toward the last eighth it was patent Cambrian would win, barring accident, as he was running true and strongly, and showing no signs of distress. Of the others Vulcan was the first to crack and fall away beaten and Louisville was beginning to sprawl. Advance Guard moved up fast on the inside rail with his usual dash, while John Bright and The Conqueror II. were closing with resolution, although the latter had lost ground by a wide swing at the stretch turn, going almost to the outside rail. Cambrian maintained his lead to the end, finally winning by one length, while Advance Guard coming fast and true beat out the faltering Louisville by a length. The latter beat John Bright by a neck only for third money while he in turn finished only a neck before The Conqueror II., with Hernando a length away. Both John Bright and the Vincent colt would have passed Louisville in a stride or two. The son of Sir Dixon was given a poor ride, Robertson taking the extreme outside with him throughout the entire flight. Hernando ran a surprisingly good race being only beaten three lengths all told by the winner. Robert Waddell ran a far from satisfactory race and was a never a contender and the same may be said of Favonius, which at the weight was thought by a number of shrewd turfmen to have a good chance of finishing inside of the money.

The most exciting finish of the day occurred in the fifth race when The Pride and Rival Dare passed so closely together over the line that none but the judges could separate them. The verdict was given to the Ryan gelding, who won a lucky race by an eyelash. Rival Dare was the best, and had Robertson used the same energy as Woods displayed on the winner in the closing strides she must certainly have won. Maggie Davis led by a fair margin up to the run-in, where Rival Dare moved up and throat-latched The Pride, who had gotten to Maggie Davis' saddle-girth a furlong out. Along in here The Pride began to waver slightly, and the Bolich & Sweet mare began to gradually draw away from him, the Sloan mare having fallen slightly away. In the last fifty yards, to the surprise of all present, The Pride slowly but surely picked up his lost advantage simply because Robertson became too confident and before the latter could rally his mount for a final effort Woods had shot The Pride's nose first over the line with Maggie Davis one length away. It looked like a clear case of tossing the money off through carelessness, Robertson being soundly hissed for his puerile effort. Pirate's Queen was only beaten two lengths by the winner and is ready to win when placed right.

HARLEM STAKES FILL WELL.

Nominations to the ten additional stakes of the Harlem Jockey Club closed July 18, with a total of 317 entries. The average of thirty-two, including the steeplechase events, is highly gratifying to Secretary Nathanson, in view of the fact that stakes closing so soon before the decision receive no complimentary entries and that every horse named is ready to go the post and has a winning chance under the conditions. In class these stakes are fully up to the standard marked by the fixtures that closed last February. Nine of the latter remain to be decided during the summer and fall meetings at Harlem. These, with the four stakes just closed give Harlem a list of nineteen special valuable events to be run during the remainder of its season, as follows:

Winner—B. g. by Exile—Meddle.
Went to post at 2:30. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving. Disturber's race was a case of sudden awakening and he was easily best. Irene Lindsay secured a lucky break at the start, showed good speed and hung on well at the end. Taveta got off poorly and was carried wide on the first turn. Anna Darling closed a big gap. Oyezpa is a good looking and displayed plenty of speed for three-quarters and will improve. It was a very bad band of horses. Scratched—26858 Staten Island, 112; 26706 Hop Brook, 112; Kink, 102; Guileless, 102; 26961 Boojum, 102; 21400 Philma Paxton, 100.

Time, 4:40.
Winner—Ch. h. by Sir Dixon—Sunglean.
Went to post at 3:00. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Sir Hubert trailed to the stretch where he easily forged to the front. Isen's effort was a great improvement and her work through the field was excellent. Passe Partout, which appeared a certain winner almost throughout, broke down hopelessly in the stretch. Perion pecked badly several times and it hurt his chances. George Keene hung out distress signals very early in the trip. Scratched—18417 Tantris, 153; 26883 Fulminate, 146.
Sir Hubert, show, 2 to 5. Isen, show, 6 to 5. Passe Partout, show, out.

Winner—B. g. by Montana—Ravilli.
Went to post at 3:30. At post 3 minutes. Start straggling. Won handily; second driving. Montana Pioneer received a lucky break and waited on the pacemakers to the stretch, where, under a vigorous ride he easily drew to the front and acted like a stayer. Oclawaha was probably best, but had little chance with his inexperienced jockey and his race makes him out to be very good. Cast Iron, Illuminate and Locket were going well at the end. Halberdier is of no account, except, perhaps, in mud. Prophetic ran a bad race and quit almost to a walk in the last quarter.
Scratched—26802 Colonial Girl, 104.
Overweights—Maximola, 2 pounds.

Went to post at 3:55. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily. Prince of Melbourne was very rank and bolted suddenly on the first turn when going the first time around, nearly unseating his jockey. He was straightened out and set sail after Rochester, which was indulged with the lead for another mile, but when given his head Prince of Melbourne shot to the front, opening up a big gap and winning easily.

Went to post at 5:00. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving. Animosity was in a soft spot, had an easy task and was never extended. Whistling Con got second place from Harry McCoon through O'Connor's superior horsemanship. Alsike was closing up at the end and may be improving.

Winner—Br. c, by Lamplighter—Golden Reel.

Went to post at 5:25. At post 7 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving. Gibson Light drew to the front in the stretch with great ease and was much the best. He is a pretty useful colt. Dewey and Ivory Bells raced each other from start to finish and the colt outgamed the filly in the stretch. The latter showed great improvement and will be heard from, especially in mud. Homestead was pinched out in the last sixteenth but showed sudden improvement.
Utopian, a half brother to Wax Taper, had outworked Smart Set five-eighths in a minute flat, hence his short price, but he ran a bad race.

Scratched—26576 Chief, 115; 26985 Bijou, 112; 26897 Belle of Milford, 112.

J. V. Kirby, 4-1, Won.

Was the guaranteed good thing. RASSELAS 4 to 1 for place was our other advertised good thing, beaten a head, was the last horse to leave the post; with a good start would have galloped home.

not lose by playing our sheet consistently. Our sheet shows plainly in figures the relative merits of a horse at a glance. What they have done in the past is nothing and what they are capable of doing at the present time is another. We employ the best of talent and are most reliable

Winner—B. g. by Bassettlaw—Teatro.

Went to post at 2:30. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. J. V. Kirby closed strongly in the last eighth, passing Jack Rattlin handily in the last hundred yards. The latter was tiring badly in the last sixteenth and Bullman had to ride him hard to stall off Rosefame's bid at the end. The latter ran a fair race and was moving fast in the last fifty yards. The Giver showed early speed, but could not carry it far. Lord Quex began slowly, but finished fast. Rengaw ran well up for a half mile and bears watching. Hat Mitchell failed to show his usual turn of speed.

Scratched—26890 Bridge, 115; 26408 W. F. Mohr, 105; 268792 Harry Wilson, 105; 268901 I. Samelson, 105.

Winner—B. f. by Pardee—Day Dream.

Went to post at 3:00. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Obia showed the most speed for the entire route and was never in trouble. Vesuvian ran a dull race. Bullman rode him hard all the way down the stretch, but he could never overcome the winner's lead. Conundrum ran well, but tired badly in the last eighth. Reseda ran far below expectations and gradually fell out of the race after the first quarter had been run.

Overweights—Reseda, 2 pounds.

Winner—B. m. by Tom Paxton—Helen Bancroft.

Went to post at 3:30. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving hard; second easily. Helen Paxton assumed an easy command just after passing beyond the half and appeared to be winning easily when coming down the stretch but she tired badly in the last eighth and had to be driven out to the last ounce to beat out Rasselas. The latter was badly outrun in the first part of the race but closed fast in the last quarter and would have won in a few more strides. Dagmar ran a greatly improved race and was right there at the finish. George Arab showed early speed but died away in the last quarter. The Bondman seemingly could not get up a fairly good gallop.

Scratched—27013 Little Boy Blue, 97.

Overweights—Gelsetto, 1 pound; George Arab, 5; Rasselas, 1; Baird, 1.

Winner—Ch. h. by Hindoo—Cambria.

Went to post at 4:00. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won handily; second the same. Cambrian was luxuriant of speed and after moving into the lead at the first three eighths post was never afterward headed. Advance Guard came with his usual burst of speed down the stretch along the inside rail and was closing up at the finish. Louisville ran a good race but was dying away at the end and just lasted long enough to get third money. John Bright moved up fast in the last quarter and would have been third in another stride. The Conqueror II was the victim of a bad ride. He swung wide at the head of the stretch, losing some ground and finished strongly near the outside rail. He was on the extreme outside for the entire journey. Hernando's race was a good one and he finished fast and strongly. Jiminez died away after showing well for seven furlongs. Favonius and Robert Waddell were outrun all the way.

Scratched—26851 The Lady, 104.

Overweights—Jiminez, 11 pounds; Favonius, 3.

Winner—B. g. by Dundee—Beeswing.

Went to post at 4:40. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won in a terrific drive; second handily. The Pride finished with determination and just got up in time to win on the post. Rival Dare was winning handily in the last one hundred yards, but Robertson was too confident and Woods nipped him in the last stride. Maggie Davis tired perceptibly in the last sixteenth. Pirate's Queen's race was a good one and she finished stoutly. The others were never contenders.

Went to post at 5:10. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Odnor was easily the best and the race was never in doubt. Latch Key finished strongly, but was not good enough to beat the winner. Gawaine was tiring at the end and would have lost the third money in a stride or two to Harry Preston. The latter finished strongly and will bear watching. Whitfield ran well for six furlongs and then retired. He was probably short. Chauncey Fisher was right there for five and a half furlongs and then quit.

Went to post at 2:32. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Avatar was well in motion when the field broke. He was passed when turning into the stretch but came again and won with something to spare. Dr. Moore ran in improved form and was a keen contender until in the last furlong where he tired. Dr. Clark did his best. Loyal Prince came from a long way behind and finished strongly. Judging from his race today he will earn brackets soon. Aaron was pulled around just as the starter's flag fell.

Scratched—26974 Descubridora, 107.

Went to post at 3:04. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second easily. In the going Lacrimae was easily the best and could have won further off had Howell wanted to. Fannie Blazes was easily the best of the others today. Drummond only got third money in the final stride. She and Sly Maid raced as a team throughout. Pillowdex could not raise a gallop in the mud.

Went to post at 3:36. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won handily, but all out; second driving. Antagone showed much the most early speed, but had to do her best in the last furlong. Meggs, The Geezer, Lady Kent and Tempt all swung wide into the stretch and came to the wire like a cavalry charge in the last furlong. Meggs got second place in the last rod. The Geezer should have been closer up, but Walker allowed him to drop out of it at the three-furlongs post. Hunting ran a bad race.

Winner—Ch. g. by Sanford—Georgie M.
Went to post at 4:06. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Rush Fields ran a high class race. His bad legs were greatly favored by the soft going and he won with plenty in reserve. Ohnet was a factor all the way, and when Walker saw he had second place safe and could not catch the leader he eased up. Espionage did not run as well as in her previous starts. Bohul faltered in the last twenty yards. Callear was never a contender and showed a dislike for the going.

Corrected weights—Rush Fields, 105.

Overweights—Bohul, 3 pounds.

The latter was easily the best of the others. She lost considerable ground by making a bad turn into the stretch. Lord Frazer showed a lot of speed in the early stages but was tiring at the end. Georgia Gardner made up a lot of ground from a bad beginning. Remark tired as if short.
